

Bio Jamie Wilkinson

Jamie is a UK-trained pharmacist and has practiced in the community pharmacy sector in large high-street multiples, medical centre-based pharmacies, independent pharmacies and abroad.

Jamie is Director of Professional Affairs at the Pharmaceutical Group of the European Union (PGEU), which is the association representing over 400.000 pharmacists across Europe. Jamie has experience in lobbying, advocacy, EU health policy & legislation, pan-EU level communication, stakeholder management, project management, public health initiatives and provision of professional pharmacy practice advice.

Jamie also has teaching experience gained from part-time roles as a Teacher Practitioner in Pharmacy Practice (University of Reading, UK). Jamie holds an MPharm Master of Pharmacy (Kingston & St Georges, London), an MSc in Social Research Methods (specialised in health policy, University of Sussex, UK) and is currently studying part-time for an MPH Master in Public Health (University of Sheffield, UK).