

Curriculum vitae

Anna Stavdal

Born 59, married, two children born 91 and 93

Education:

One year sociology, University of Oslo 1980

Graduated from Medical School University of Oslo 1987

Specialist General Practice/Family Medicine 1999

Authorized counsellor for General Practice/Family Medicine specialist training

Relevant work experience:

GP in Oslo from 1989

Part time lecturer, University of Oslo since 1996

Senior Advisor, The Norwegian Board of Health Supervision 2010-2012

Weekly columnist on health issues in the newspaper "Verdens Gang" (the biggest tabloid in Norway) for seven years from 2002-2009.

Relevant organisational experience:

Norwegian College of general Practice

- Board member 1994-1999
- President 1999-2003

Stichtung Scandinavian Journal of Primary Health Care

Chair of the board from 1999- 2005

Nordic Federation of General Practice

Cofounder and the federation`s first president 2005-2011

WONCA Europe

Vice President 2010->

Author of several articles in the Journal of the Norwegian Medical Association and Scandinavian Journal for Primary Health Care.

Participant in public debate on health matters in mass media in Norway.