

Primary and long-term care in the age of changing boundaries:
Policy, practice and imagination
Online conference
6th of September – 7th of September 2021

Instructions for authors of policy debate sessions:

Thank you for your interest to present at the EFPC conference “Primary and long-term care in the age of changing boundaries: Policy, practice and imagination” on 6 & 7 September 2021. Your poster presentation will have a time slot at a parallel session in the online conference.

- The posters will be presented at policy debate sessions.
- Two weeks prior to the start of the conference you will find on the conference website the time of the parallel session together with themes and order of presentations
- Please make your poster ready with the final statement(s) before the conference.
- The debate corner sessions will be chaired by a chairperson who is responsible for time management only
- The time allocated to debate for each poster is approximately 15 minutes. You as a presenter will lead your own debate. The chairperson will indicate when the maximum time is reached.
- You will first be given a few minutes to present your poster statement(s) orally and subsequently some time to answer any comments or questions. This is then followed by the debate.
- Please provide us with a pdf version of your poster to Batuhan Ocbe at b.ocbe@euprimarycare.org
- It will be presented at the EFPC website with all other conference presentations.

Organisational matters:

- Please register yourself for the conference through the conference website; after registration you will receive all important mailings regarding the conference.
- We recommend you to register as soon as possible as the total number of available places is limited; if we do not receive your registration until the 1st of August we will appoint other authors to provide a presentation.

We wish you a successful session!

With kind regards,
The EFPC Organizing Committee
